The Convention.

There was a great crowd of Democrats at the convention Saturday and the proceedings passed off harmoniously. A hot fight had been waged for two days between the "McCreary-Vansant" and the "James Star-ley" factions. Workers were stationed at the door and directed all James men to turn to the right and all McCreary men to the left. When the crowd was in, it was evident that the administration side had won and there was much good-natured jollying and applause, but no bitterness.
The leaders put their heads together and the outcome was that C. H.
Bush nominated J. T. Hanbery for Chairman and T. P. Cook, who had intended to nominate Dr. J. D.
Clardy, seconded Hanbery's nomination instead. T. C. Underwood was elected secretary.

The proceedings were brief.
Judge Walter Knight offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

"Be it resolved by the Democratic party of Christian county in convention assembled:

"1st. That we congratulate the people of the commonwealth of Kentucky upon their redemption from Republican misrule at the last November election, and upon the election of a full Democratic ticket for state offices:

"2nd. That we endorse the splendid administration of our state affairs by our Democratic governor, Hon. James B. McCreary, and other state officials.

"3rd. That we heartily endorse many progressive measures adopted by the Democratic party in the lower house of congress, and upon their reformation of the rules governing the house of representatives whereby it has become a deliberative body expressive of, and responsive too, the will of people.

"4th. That the chairman of this convention appoint a committee to select 32 delegates to cast the vote to this county in the Democratic state and district conventions which meet in the city of Louisville on May 29th, 1912; and that they be instructed to vote for the Hon. Champ Clark for Democratic nominee for the office of president of the United States and that they be and are instructed to vote as a unit upon all Former leader of the minority in congress, and now speaker of the house, Champ Clark has plenty of record on which to base his candidacy for the Democratic nomination, and his boomers are taking every advantage of it. Mr. Clark has been active in congress for so many years that his position on most questions is well known to the public. Missouri is for him strong since the retirement of Joseph Folk in his favor.

Three Valuable Animals Struck by Lightning.

During the storm Friday night three fine cows belonging to Mr.
Melvin O. Kimerling, of the Beverly neighborhood, were killed by lightning. The cattle were standing under a tree in the field when the bolt descended. The tree was only slightly split. Mr. Kimerling's loss is about $150. He had recently refused an offer of $75 for one of the cows.

Cuba Obstreperous.

The cruiser Washington and the battleships New Jersey, Rhode Island, Georgia, Nebraska, Ohio, Mississippi, Missouri and Minnesota and the gunboat Yankton are on their way to Key West, and it is supposed their ultimate destination is Cuba, where an insurrection is on in the province of Oriente. The battleship Nebraska is already at Key West.
President Gomez expresses himself as confident of the Government's ability to deal with the insurrection.
More than 3,000 Government troops are now in that province.

CLARK GETS KENTUCKY

Assured of Sufficient Votes to Control State Convention and Send Instructed Delegation.

PRACTICALLY SWEEPS STATE.

Second District Shows Confidence in Stanley by Rolling Up Big Vote for His Choice.

Louisville, Ky., May 27.—Champ Clark swept Kentucky in the democratic conventions in 115 of the 120 counties of the state Saturday. Returns from about half of the counties give him more than the 613 instructed votes necessary to control the state convention here May 29.
One county instructed for Harmon, giving him eight votes, and one and a part of another for Wilson, giving him sixteen votes. This, the Fifth district, comprising Jefferson county, which held precinct conventions was carried for Clark.

This victory will give Clark the entire delegation of twenty six votes from Kentucky to the national democratic convention.

A lively fight is being waged for control of the state organization between the administration and forces headed by Senator-elect James.

The fight for control of the state organization is in doubt.

With sixteen counties out, representing 123 votes, including Campbell and Kenton, which held conventions Monday and are considered doubtful, James for temporary chairman of the state convention, has 539; Mc-Creary, 379; John M. Stevenson, for state chairman, 497; Rufus Vansant, 434.

The James and Stevenson forces carried the First, Second, Fourth and Fifth, and probably the Seventh, McCreary and Vansant carried the Third, Eighth and Ninth, and have the lead in the Sixth, Tenth and Eleventh.

Hangs on Sixth District.

The fight for the temporary chairmanship hangs in the Sixth district.
County conventions will be held in Covington and Newport on Monday, and the result in the state convention depends largely upon those two districts. In the event that either of them instruct for James he will be elected temporary chairman over Governor McCreary.

Miss Jackman.

Editor Kentuckian:

I read with much interest an article in your issue of the 25th instant, headed "A Tribute to the Trió," wherein the writer spoke in glowing terms of the loyalty and self-sacrifice of Messrs. Kuykendall and Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Foster.
I endorse every word in the article and am inclined to, if possible, even speak of these heroes in the hour of what might be termed calamity and trial in stronger terms than did the writer of the article referred to.
But by inadvertence the author failed to mention and pay just tribute to one of the faculty who faced the adverse circumstances following the third destruction by fire of McLean.
I mean Miss Louise Jackman, teacher of piano. I am certain that Messrs. Kuykendall and Smith regret the forgetfulness of the writer as much as do the friends of Miss Jackson, for a more efficient piano instructor than she has never been a member of the faculty of the college.
No one has ever been more diligent in arduous labor, more patient with pupils and more conscientious in the performance of every duty. As a woman she is a noble Christian, quiet and unobtrusive, never forcing herself to the front, shining brightest in the quiet corners of life, but making friends of all with whom she comes in contact.—W.
